OU to host motivational talks and workshops

Oakland University is hosting motivational speakers to inspire high school students and OU students on Friday, March 21, from 10-11 a.m. in the Oakland Center Lake Superior Rooms. Workshops also will be held from 11 a.m.-12:15 p.m. in the Oakland Center Lake Michigan and Lake Superior Rooms.

Speakers will discuss the adversity that they faced and obstacles they have overcome in their lives to be successful. The speakers include OU students Emily Fulton and Lenny Compton and Mayor Willie W. Payne of Pontiac.

The workshops will help teach students how to succeed. Some of the workshops include "Preparing for the Journey," "Finding Your Mission in Life (Importance of Goal Setting)," "Mentoring and You - Making It Happen" and "What Commitment Will You Make to Yourself?"

Lunch will be served from 12:30-1:30 p.m. in the Recreation Center Pioneer Room.

The program is being sponsored by Gear Up, the Office of Equity, Student Affairs, Golden Key International Honour Society and Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE).
