PICNIC BESIDE THE SKY-BLUE WATERS OF BEER LAKE

Adventures in Creativity students and the food service people are cooperating in the sponsorship of an afternoon Fourth of July celebration near Beer Lake. Activities will begin at 5 p.m. Saturday with a picnic taking the place of the evening meal. The buffet will be free to dorm students; others may buy meal tickets at $1.65. Creativity students will furnish musical entertainment then, and at 8:30 that night will present a "Celebration Happening" of dancers, films and projections.

TWO-BIT BARGAIN

The first 40 baseball fans to get their names on a list at the Student Activities Center in the OC can get a ticket to the Saturday, July 11, Detroit-Baltimore game at Tiger Stadium, complete with bus transportation for just 25 cents. The bus will leave the Oakland Center promptly at noon on Saturday, with no pausing for stragglers.

HAPPENING ON MONDAY

"Periwinkel Pie," the Summer School Happening of poetry and weird lighting effects set up for orientation sessions, will be presented at 10:30 a.m. Monday, July 6, for the benefit of the general University community. The show utilizes a partitioned segment of the South Cafeteria.

TIPS ON THE DRAFT

Draft counseling advice is available to OU students this summer from 11 a.m. to noon each Tuesday. The counselor can be found in cubicle No. 57 in the Student Activities Center of the OC.
