VARNER TO TALK ON 'STATE OF THE UNIVERSITY'

Chancellor Varner will give a "State of the University" address at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Sports and Recreation Building to launch the University's Tenth Anniversary program. The year-long observance will feature a study of problems facing higher education, including classes, seminars and conferences on the theme "The University in Crisis." Wednesday's special convocation--which will not include an academic procession as originally planned--will be followed by the annual reception for faculty and AP staff members at the Varner home, at the corner of Butler and Adams Roads. All faculty and AP staffers are invited, whether they received printed invitations mailed out last week, or not. All members of the University community are urged to attend Wednesday's Tenth Anniversary Convocation.

WIN A CAMPER

The OU Credit Union Service Center is getting ready for its annual meeting, to be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, October 13, in Dodge Hall. Grand prize for this year's drawing will be a camping trailer outfitted to sleep six. Other door prizes will include a variety of camping equipment, and there will be special gifts for children. Brief reports, entertainment and refreshments will be served, but not in that order. Members of the University community and their families who are not Credit Union members are urged to join now so that they can participate in the meeting and drawings.

FACULTY BOOKS SHOWN

Currently on display in the lounge area of Kresge Library are selections of publication from past and present OU faculty members. This collection is housed in the Kresge Library archives. The library welcomes any additional contributions from faculty members, new and old, to strengthen this growing collection. The exhibit will continue through September 25.

2 ARTICLES PUBLISHED

Richard A. Mazzara (modern languages) is the author of two articles appearing in recent editions of the Kentucky Romance Quarterly and Forum, a journal published by Ball State University. The articles are entitled "Theophile de Viau, Saint-Amant, and the Spanish Soledad" and "Poetic Humor and Universality of Suassuna's Compadecida."

CHEAP AT HALF PRICE

The deadline for faculty, staff and student tuition discounts for the 190 Continuing Education courses is this Friday. Members of the University community and their spouses are entitled to one-half tuition discounts. Classes begin the week of September 22.

CHAPERONES NEEDED

Chaperones are needed for the Indian Summer Days dance, to be held from 8 p.m. to midnight Saturday in the Sports and Recreation Building. The John Guthery Quartet will play at the dance, which is part of an Indian Days weekend staged as a benefit to provide a University scholarship for an American Indian. Would-be chaperones should call 2040.

BEER LAKE BECKONS

If you missed entering the Gold Cup races this year, you may be interested in competing in the third annual Beer Lake Canoe Race, to be run from 2 to 5 p.m. Friday. Faculty and staff wishing to paddle their own canoe should call 2040 for details and registration.
