CBE hosting professional development weekend

Oakland University's Center for Business Excellence (CBE), which is part of the School of Business Administration, is hosting a professional development weekend Nov. 9-11 in Elliott Hall's Executive and Continuing Education Training Center.

The weekend offers seminars for accounting, auditing and financial planning professionals to earn CPE credits. The seminars are standardized to meet state certification requirements and are delivered by OU's academically accomplished and knowledgeable instructors.

Participants only pay for the sessions they attend. A complimentary continental breakfast, buffet luncheon and snack break are provided for those who attend a whole day.

For more information, call (248) 370-3128 or visit the School of Business Administration Web site.
