Students can go to the movies at OU

By Dawn Pauli, contributing writer

Pass the popcorn, Meadow Brook Hall is hosting its first-ever March Movie Madness at Shotwell-Gustafson Pavilion for students and their guests to enjoy.

Three popular flicks will be shown on the big screen, just bring a blanket or chair and a few friends. One person in the group must have a current OU student ID.

Popcorn and soda is included in the $5 admission. Doors open at 7 p.m., and the movie begins at 7:30 p.m.

"We thought students would like to get together for a good movie," said Shannon O'Berski, marketing manager for Meadow Brook Hall. "We've got something for everyone a comedy, adventure and a thriller."

March Movie Madness Schedule:

- "The Ring," showing Thursday, March 25, is an offbeat thriller where a disturbing videotape appears to hold the power of life and death over those who view it.
- "Pirates of the Caribbean," playing Friday, March 26, is a high-seas adventure featuring sword-clashing action, mystery, humor, unforgettable characters and never-before-seen special effects.
- "Old School," showing Saturday, March 27, is an over-the-top comedy where three men relive their carefree college years.

For more information on March Movie Madness, visit the Meadow Brook Hall Web site or call (248) 370-3140.
