FROM THE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN SERVICES

From Markering Coordinator James Silvestri:

I think it's safe to say that the fall semester is now in full swing. This is undoubtedly a busy time of year for everyone, especially SEHS as a whole. In the last few weeks, the School has taken part in several events showcasing its extraordinary programs and even more extraordinary people. On September 2, SEHS participated in the Academic Open House, which brought 80+ students into Pawley Hall, giving them the opportunity to tour the building and get a taste of all the programs and services SEHS has to offer. On September 19, Lowry had a special focus during OU's homecoming weekend (Sep 18-20) with the 50th Anniversary and Rededication. The event was well attended, with roughly 250 guests, who were able to see the history of the Center and participate in a time capsule dedication.

Still to come this year is Education and Human Services Day (<https://www.oakland.edu/apps/admissionsevents/default.aspx?category=CVE>), taking place on Saturday, November 7. If you are a faculty member interested in participating in the day's activities, please contact Marian Nowosatko (<mailto:nowosatko@oakland.edu?subject=Education%20Day%20inquiry>).

It is no secret that the School of Education and Human Services is always active. This is evident in the newly published edition of the Annual Magazine. If you have not received a copy, or if you would like a few extra, please stop by my office in 410F Pawley Hall or the Dean's Office in 415 Pawley Hall. You are also able to view an electronic version the full magazine (<http://viewer.zmags.com/publication/ade193f9#/ade193f9/1>) from the SEHS homepage.
