OU and Jack's Place for Autism host Family Fun Day

Rochester, Michigan, November 2, 2004 — Oakland University and Jack's Place for Autism will host a Family Fun Day on Saturday, Nov. 20 from noon – 4 p.m. at the Oakland University Recreation and Athletics Center on the university's campus.

"Experts from the Beaumont HOPE Center, Kaufman Children's Center, Macomb-Oakland Regional Center (MORC) and Law Enforcement Awareness Network (L.E.A.N.) On Us will be available to answer questions about their services and help with the activities," said Jessica Bridges, director of Jack's Place for Autism. "Participants will also have a chance to be among the first to sign-up for the new programs Jack's Place for Autism has to offer."

The whole family is invited to participate in activities including a soccer skills room, sensory room, art room where you can decorate a tile for the Autism Society of Michigan Quilt, swimming, basketball, and so much more!
