

Monday, June 26, 2000

OU engineering professors awarded grants

Three Oakland University professors from the School of Engineering and Computer Science received grants to continue their research in different areas.

Professor Gautam B. Singh has received an award from DaimlerChrysler for "Decision Support System for Ergonomics Evaluations." This award is for $99,308.

Professor Naim Kheir has received an award from the Department of Energy – Argonne National Laboratory for "Energy Management and Control Strategies for Parallel Hybrid Vehicles: Phase 2." This award is for $75,000.

Professor Viviana Sandor has received an award from the University Research Committee for "Wavelet-Based Image Computing." This award is for $1,000.

Oakland University is a comprehensive state-supported institution of higher education located in Oakland County, Michigan. The university has 109 bachelor's degree programs and 63 graduate degree and certificate programs. Dedicated to preparing learners for the 21st century workplace and society, Oakland University is organized into the College of Arts and Sciences and the Schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Sciences, Nursing; and the Honors College.

SUMMARY

Three Oakland University professors from the School of Engineering and Computer Science received grants to continue their research in different areas.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Monday, June 26, 2000

Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Monday, June 26, 2000

Article Start Date: Tuesday, November 25, 2003