Dean's Choice Grant Instagram Contest

Do your students love posting on Instagram? Now they have the chance to win money for it!

All contestants have a chance of winning one of three prizes:

- First place: $1,250
- Second place: $750
- Third place: $500

All applications must be submitted by 5 p.m. on Friday, March 16. Winners will be contacted by March 30. Prizes will be presented to students on Monday, April 9.

For steps to entering and helpful tips, have your students visit the contest webpage.

Helpful Print Reference Resources

When you are looking for books on a certain topic, for curricular use, or perhaps for a certain age range, print reference sources can be a great option. These listings might not be online, but they are still terrific resources.

Most public libraries will have great reference books in their reference section or in a section designated for homeschool families. One new title in the ERL is Collecting for the Curriculum: The Common Core and Beyond, by Amy Catalano (Libraries Unlimited, 2015). The appendices provide a variety of useful and practical bibliographies for teachers and parents alike, and the ERL owns many of the listed titles.

CELEBRATIONS

If you do not wish to have your birthday included, contact Jennifer Schmalz.

ABOUT THE SEHS BULLETIN

The SEHS Bulletin is a place where faculty and staff can share news and celebrate the wonderful things happening in SEHS. The bulletin is the perfect place to share information about your publications and awards, special projects and committee news, as well as announce events.

All are welcome to send items for inclusion. If you choose to do so, please ensure that your items are print ready, that you include all related links, and that you have permission to publish any photos being submitted. Please put "SEHS Bulletin" in the subject line and email your information to: jmschmalz@oakland.edu.

If you have questions about the bulletin, email Jennifer Schmalz at jmschmalz@oakland.edu.
