

Thursday, May 31, 2001

Alumni Association announces new board members

The Oakland University Alumni Association (OUAA) announced six new members to its Board of Directors.

The new members include Cheryl D. Henderson Case, Gregg Garrett, John R. Hruska Jr., Phyllis D. Meadows, Thomas Mittelbrun III and Cynthia Tomczak.

Cheryl D. Henderson Case, CAS '92 (College of Arts and Sciences), of Lake Angelus, is the president and owner of Case Properties, L.L.C. While attending Oakland University, she volunteered at the Lowry Center, Oakland University's daycare center, and received her Master's in Early Childhood Development.

Gregg Garrett, SECS'97 (School of Engineering and Computer Science), of Berkley, is a Senior Consultant with Cap Gemini Ernst & Young, LLP. He was instrumental in starting the first OU Men's Lacrosse team and later coached the team from 1995 to 2000. He also helped to introduce a collaborative engineering partnership between the School of Engineering and Computer Science and Birmingham Seaholm High School. Garrett has served on the OU School of Health Sciences Task Force and the Student Affairs Task Force.

John R. Hruska Jr., CAS '86, SBA'89 (School of Business Administration), of Rochester Hills, is a vice president of Bank One Corporation. He has served as a member of the Board of Directors of Big Brothers/Big Sisters, the Lansing Housing Coalition and the Independence Township Sesquicentennial Committee.

Phyllis D. Meadows, Ph. D., SON '80 (School of Nursing), of Ann Arbor, is a program director for Youth and Education of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation. Oakland University recognized her with the School of Nursing's most distinguished alumni award, the 1994 Nightingale Award. Meadows is a Board member of the Detroit community Health Connection, the Children's Museum of Detroit, Eureka Foundation and Detroit Primary Care.

Thomas Mittelbrun III, SBA '88, of Troy, is the administrator for the Electrical Workers' Joint Boards of Trustees. In addition to being a graduate of the School of Business Administration, he also completed an electrical program and presently administers a group of multi-employer fringe benefit trust funds.

Cynthia Tomczak, SBA '94, of Birmingham, is a National Account Manager for TV Guide Media. She is an active member of the Adcraft Club of Detroit, Adcraft PM, the Magazine Representatives Association and the Cable Advertising Representatives.

The OUAA Board is a 24-member body that is called upon by the university to give advice on all matters relating to alumni and specifically provides counsel and advice to the Alumni Relations Office, the president of Oakland University and the OU Board of Trustees.

SUMMARY

The Alumni Association announced six new members to its Board of Directors.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Thursday, May 31, 2001
Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Thursday, May 31, 2001
Article Start Date: Wednesday, November 26, 2003