Limited phone lines available at John Dodge House

Due to a cable problem, the John Dodge House, which houses the Alumni Association (OUAA) and University Relations, has very limited phone lines available. None of its fax lines (extensions 4420, 4249 and 4206) is currently working, so a temporary line (248-370-4666) has been established. Please use this line if you need to fax something to the John Dodge House. In addition, the toll free number for Alumni Relations (877-445-2586) is temporarily unavailable.

Because repairs could take up to three weeks, the university asks that you demonstrate patience when trying to contact someone at John Dodge House. Because of the limited lines, you may experience a prolonged ringing rather than connection to voice mail or to the party you are trying to reach. Please try again or use e-mail as an alternate mode of communication. The OUAA can be reached by e-mailing ouaa@oakland.edu.
