Heat up your winter with Dinner and a Movie series

Need some relief from the frigid winter air? Let 1930s classic movies thaw you out with their timeless stories, passionate characters, and screwball comedy. Designed to warm your insides with thoughts of pure romance and zany humor, Meadow Brook Hall's "Dinner and a Movie" series, held every Wednesday night in February, will connect guests with the timeless cinematic tales of the heart.

"Dinner and a Movie" programs are shown in Meadow Brook Hall's elegant ballroom, the original motion picture-viewing room of Matilda and Alfred Wilson. Each week, moviegoers will enjoy a meal as they get a unique look at the beginning of the classic "screwball" romance.

Featured movies include:

- "The Merry Widow" with Jeanette MacDonald and Maurice Chevalier (Feb. 4);
- "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife" with Claudette Colbert and Gary Cooper (Feb. 11)
- "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" with Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur (Feb. 18)
- "Ninotchka" with Greta Garbo and Melvyn Douglas (Feb. 25).

Doors open at 7 p.m. and the movies start at 7:30 p.m. Admission is $25 per person and includes dinner. A cash bar also is available. Space is limited, so please call in advance for reservations.

For more information on the Dinner and a Movie series, call (248) 370-3140 or visit the Meadow Brook Hall Web site.
