

25th Annual Women's Studies Film Festival

Saturday, February 17, 2007
9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
156 North Foundation Hall

REGISTRATION

$12.00 — General Public ($8.00 for Students and Seniors)

For information call: 248-370-2154

Registration Deadline: Friday, February 9, 2007

Films

☞ Nalini by Day, Nancy by Night ☞

A film by Sonali Gulati,
India/US, 2005.

A study of the Indian women who work in customer-support call centers, providing 24 hour a day service to English-speaking consumers.

☞ Pain, Passion and Profit ☞

A videotape by Gurinder Chadha,
England, 1992.

A British entrepreneur visits the African women who supply one of the ingredients that she uses in cosmetics and beauty products. She also pays a visit to two other villages where female entrepreneurs sell products of their traditional crafts to modern markets.

Feature Film: Lilya 4-Ever

Sandre Metronome, 2006, directed by Lukas Moodysson, starring Oksana Akinshina
A devastating portrayal of the international sex-slave business and how it destroys a young Russian girl.