Campus closed as of noon Tuesday, Sept. 11

The university will officially be closed as of noon, Tuesday, Sept. 11, in recognition of the concern for safety and peace of mind of our students, employees and their families during the national tragedy.

All classes and university events are officially canceled as of this time, including all evening and extension classes and all auxiliary activities as well as the women's volleyball game against Eastern Michigan and men's soccer game against Western Michigan.

Kresge Library, the Recreation Center, Katke-Cousins and R&S Sharf Golf Courses, Meadow Brook Hall and the Oakland Center also are closed.

Residence Halls will be open, as will Vandenberg Dining Hall, for on-campus students. The Graham Health Center will remain open for counseling services to students.

The university will be open for business as usual on Wednesday, Sept. 12. Students and employees should call the university hotline to confirm (248) 370-2000, or check the university's Web site (www.oakland.edu).

Radio and television stations should also contain opening/closing information.
