Perspectives

"Why I Love the Library"

Distinguished Professor Emerita Jane Eberwein shares with readers of The Fountain the sources of her deep and abiding love for this library in particular, whose very existence helped woo her to Oakland University at the beginning of her long and illustrious career. Full Story...

What's Up with the New Medical Library?

Recently The Fountain's roving interviewer caught up with Nancy Bulgarelli, hired in August 2009 to be the Founding Director of the Medical Library of the Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine. We asked her some questions, and here's what we learned Full Story...

Ongoing Activities

Poetry Readings

In order to give readers and poets a chance to share their favorite poems in a convivial setting, Kresge Library holds monthly poetry readings in the Student Lounge, on the 2nd floor, just inside the main entrance. Generally occurring at noon on the first Thursday of any given month, these events are a relaxed and informal setting where attendees can read their own work, poems by other authors, or just sit back and enjoy the experience of listening. Also, check out our upcoming poetry slam with real prizes!

Lit to Film Book Club announces new lineup

A joint venture of Kresge Library and the Oakland University Alumni Association, the OUAA Lit to Film Book Club explores the transition and interpretation of literature on the silver screen. Participants read a book each month, and then watch and discuss a film based upon it. Full Story...
