Weekly ERL Update: Food for Fines Program

Help fight hunger on campus. Team up with the ERL and Kresge Library by participating in our Food for Fines Program, from December 1–15. Please let your students know that for each item donated, we will forgive $1 worth of overdue fines. Faculty and staff can participate too, even if you have no fines — all donations are welcome!

This year, all proceeds will go to the recently opened Golden Grizzlies' Pantry at the Oakland Center, which benefits the students, faculty and staff of OU. Stop by the ERL to see a list of needed, unexpired, non-perishable, food items and to learn more. Look for our donation box near the Circulation Desk.

Celebrating Dr. Ron Cramer

During AUFD 2018, we're #celebratingCRAMER once again in recognition of Ron Cramer's 50 years of service to Oakland University in the Department of Reading and Language Arts. For those of you who did not know Dr. Cramer, he was a writer with a genuine love for language and poetry. Below is the sixth of eight "found poems" that students, staff and faculty made from each selecting a sentence strip that spoke to them. For this poem, words and phrases were taken from a variety of Dr. Cramer's essays and email correspondence.

Found Poem #6 of 8

Accept the mantle
Rise, just enough above unanswerable questions
You never know
So write the book you want to read
Rise
Rise
Rise
Because something nice is within you

Elementary Education Students Gather to Paint Pumpkins

Residents in the Elementary Education Living Learning Community enjoyed an evening of pumpkin painting on October 31. Students had the opportunity to express their creativity when decorating their pumpkins, along with enjoying dinner together prior to the event. The students did leave enough room in their stomachs to eat almost a 5 pound bag of peach rings while they decorated. Students discussed trends within the field of education and their favorite Halloween memory.
