President of Mexico to visit OU

Oakland University will host a distinguished world leader next week as the President of Mexico Vicente Fox Quesada and First Lady Martha Sahagún de Fox visit the campus Friday, June 18.

A special ceremony is being planned to mark this historic event. The invitation-only event, which will take place in OU's Athletics Arena, will feature an address by President Fox.

The trip is part of a two-day tour of Michigan, in which President Fox and his wife also will visit Lansing.

At this time, details for the OU event are still being finalized. As details become available, they will be posted to The News @ OU Web site.
