

STAFF BULLETIN

November 2 - 8, 1970

*Published weekly by University news service, 122 North Foundation
(ext. 2217). Deadline for submitting material is 5 p.m. Thursday.*

FIFTH SEASON OF MEADOW BROOK OPENS THIS WEEK

Meadow Brook Theatre will open its fifth season this week with a production of Thornton Wilder's Skin of Our Teeth. Considered one of the greatest plays of our time, the production will star Harry Ellerbe as Antrobus and Elisabeth Orion as his wife. Terence Kilburn, artistic director of Meadow Brook and the Academy of Dramatic Art, will direct the play.

The season opener will be Thursday, with a curtain time of 8:30 p.m. The play will continue in the campus theatre through Nov. 22 and then will move to the Detroit Institute of Arts Theatre for a one-week run, Nov. 25-29. Tickets for all performances are available at the box office, ext. 2305.

TURMOIL IN ISRAEL

"Transformations in a Revolutionary Society: The Case of Israel" will be the topic of Prof. S. N. Eisenstadt of Hebrew University, Jerusalem, in a lecture at 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 5, in the Gold Room. His appearance here is under the sponsorship of the sociology and anthropology department. Eisenstadt, a visiting professor at the University of Michigan, is regarded as the first sociologist to address himself systematically to the problem which became known later as the "Generation Gap." Sociology chairman Nahum Medalia called him "an expert on youth society, sociology of intellectuals, political sociology, and comparative social institutions."

ORCHESTRA TO PERFORM

The University Orchestra, under the direction of David Daniels, will present its first concert of the season Thursday at 8 p.m. in 110 Performing Arts. Works on the program will include "La Creation du Monde" by Darius Milhaud, Overture to "Idomeneo" by Mozart, and Symphony in C major by Bizet.

OLD BOOKS ON SALE

Friends of Kresge Library will hold a book sale all this week in the library for all members of the University community. Hours on Monday will be noon to 3 p.m. The rest of the week they will be 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Proceeds are used to buy new books for the library.

TEXTBOOK DEADLINE

Faculty members are reminded that Friday, Nov. 6, is the deadline for registering textbook information for winter semester textbook orders.

RACISM SERIES PLANNED

Sociology and anthropology and the office of student affairs are co-sponsoring a series of talks on "Racism and Beyond: Four Social Science Perspectives." First speaker in the series will be Prof. Robin Williams of Cornell University, former president of the American Sociological Association and author of many works on race relations in the United States, including Strangers Next Door. He will speak at 2 p.m. Tuesday in The Abstention on "The Future of Integration and Separatism in the U.S."

LIBRARIANS ELECTED

University Librarian Royce Butler was installed as chairman of the academic division of the Michigan Library Association and a member of its executive board during the association's annual conference, held recently in Traverse City. Jennie Cross, documents librarian, was elected secretary-treasurer of the board of the Junior Members Round Table.

RARE BOOKS DISPLAYED

A display of rare books and art portfolios is on exhibit this month in Kresge Library near the first floor entrance. The volumes are part of the library archives collection. Included in the display are first editions of Moby Dick, The Scarlet Letter, and Audubon's Birds of America. Art on display includes Impressionist, Japanese and modern prints.

TWO WORKS PUBLISHED

Thomas Fitzsimmons (English) has written an article that will appear in a coming issue of Saturday Review and a remaking of a Japanese poem. "Morning: Phone Rings" by Hitoshi Yasunishi Anzai, to be published in the November issue of Evergreen. His Saturday Review article is a review of Akutagawa's "A Fool's Life."

RICE ITEM IN ERROR

Correcting a STAFF BULLETIN item two weeks ago, the faculty appointment of F. Edward Rice in the department of psychology was to the rank of assistant professor. He also continues to serve as associate director of Psychological Services. We had incorrectly reported his appointment as associate professor.

CU POSITIONS FILLED

Winners of elections to name three members of the Credit Union Advisory Council were Robert McGarry (accounting and payroll), H. N. Stoutenburg (president's office), and Augustine Wright (urban affairs). Stoutenburg and Mrs. Wright won re-election to the nine-member council. All of the members serve three-year terms.

CALENDAR

- Monday
November 2 2:00 p.m. Three films on the war in Vietnam and Laos, made by the NFL, the North Vietnamese and a Cuban film team, 201 Dodge Hall
- Tuesday
November 3 2:00 p.m. Talk in "Racism and Beyond" series, Prof. Robin Williams of Cornell University speaking on "The Future of Integration and Separatism in the U.S.," The Abstention
- Wednesday
November 4 7:00 p.m. Film, "The Story of a Three-Day Pass," 201 Dodge Hall (reshown at 9:15)
- 8:15 p.m. ADA Studio Company play, The Little Foxes, Studio Theatre
- Thursday
November 5 11:00 a.m. Area studies lecture, John Wilson Lewis, professor of political science at Stanford University, speaking on "China and Vietnam: Mao 'Games Strategy,'" 190 Hannah Hall
- 8:00 p.m. University Orchestra concert, 110 Performing Arts (Milhaud's "La Creation du Monde," Mozart's Overture to "Idomeneo," Bizet's Symphony in C major)
- 8:15 p.m. ADA Studio Company play, The Little Foxes, Studio Theatre
- 8:30 p.m. Meadow Brook Theatre play, Skin of Our Teeth by Thornton Wilder, Wilson Hall (season opener)
- Friday
November 6 4:00 p.m. Cross country, Olivet (away)
- 8:00 p.m. Film, "The Producers," 201 Dodge Hall (reshown at 10)
- 8:15 p.m. ADA Studio Company play, The Little Foxes, Studio Theatre
- 8:15 p.m. Meadow Brook Theatre play, Skin of Our Teeth, Wilson Hall
- Saturday
November 7 2:00 p.m. Cross Country, Spring Arbor (away)
- 2:00 p.m. Soccer, University of Toledo (here)
- 2:00 p.m. Meadow Brook Theatre play, Skin of Our Teeth, Wilson Hall
- 8:00 p.m. Film, "The Producers," 201 Dodge Hall
- 8:15 p.m. ADA Studio Company play, The Little Foxes, Studio Theatre
- 8:15 p.m. Meadow Brook Theatre play, Skin of Our Teeth, Wilson Hall
- Sunday
November 8 6:30 p.m. Meadow Brook Theatre play, Skin of Our Teeth, Wilson Hall
- 8:00 p.m. Film, "The Producers," 201 Dodge Hall