President of Mexico to visit OU

Oakland University will welcome a distinguished world leader as the President of Mexico Vicente Fox Quesada and First Lady Martha Sahagún de Fox visit the campus Friday, June 18.

To commemorate the visit, a special program will take place in the Recreation and Athletics Center, beginning at 10:15 a.m. The event will feature an address by President Fox, musical performances and an official welcome by OU President Gary Russi.

The doors to the Athletics Center will open at 9 a.m. and will remain open for one hour. Admittance will not be permitted after 10 a.m. While cameras will be permitted, no bags of any kind will be allowed in the arena. The event is open to the public. Limited seating is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

The official program begins at 10:15 a.m. and will run through 11:30 a.m. Guest parking will be available in the main lot (Lot 1) on the west side of campus.

The visit to OU's campus will be part of a two-day tour of Michigan for President Fox and his wife.

For more information on the visit, see the President of Mexico Visits OU Web page that was created to give all the latest information on the visit as the event unfolds.
