

Tuesday, May 15, 2001

Alumni Association scholarships awarded

Oakland University's Alumni Association (OUAA) has awarded 13 students with scholarships for fall and winter semesters.

Scholarship recipients were chosen based on their academic accomplishments, student leadership and university and community involvement.

This year's recipients are:

OUAA Memorial Scholarship - Christine Brubaker of Shelby Township will be attending Oakland University in the fall. She currently attends Eisenhower High School in Macomb County and is on the Honors Society, Student Government and Dance Team.

School of Business Administration - Ke Juanna Culler of Detroit is a junior majoring in M.I.S. and is involved in the National Society of Black Engineers and Greenhouse Senior Citizen Home Fellowship.

College or Arts and Sciences - Adam Kochenderfer of Macomb is a senior majoring in Political Science and English. He served as Oakland University Student Body President, Student Services Director, PAUSE Mentor, College Republicans Treasurer and Student Activities Funding Board Chair.

School of Education and Human Services - Nancy Puvalowski of Ruth, Michigan, is a senior majoring in Elementary Education. She is involved in the Student Association for Teacher Education, Best of America, Michigan Reading Association, Council for Exceptional Children and Golden Key National Honor Society.

School of Engineering and Computer Science - Erik Crossley of Brownstown is a senior majoring in Mechanical Engineering. He also is a member of the Oakland University Baseball team.

School of Health Sciences - Christina Coombe of New Baltimore is a senior majoring in Physical Therapy. She is vice president of the Student Athletic Advisory Committee and is the Oakland University Cross Country team captain. She also is involved in the American Physical Therapy Association and is a Campus Housing Resident Assistant.

School of Nursing - Naeam Wilkerson of Pontiac is a senior majoring in Nursing and is the Student Nurses' Association Vice President, Peer Mentor Leader for the Office of Equity, is on the School of Nursing Dean's Circle and a tutor for Project Upward Bound.

Black Alumni Affiliate - Crystal Allen of Flint is a sophomore majoring in Elementary Education. She is an Orientation Group Leader, AmeriCorps Cadet, Secretary for the East Vandenberg House Council, and is involved in Christian Hands and Toes.

Honors College - Richard Herron of Plattsburg, Missouri, is a senior majoring in English and Art History. He is a Campus Housing Residence Assistant, Oakland Post Writer and studied abroad at the Maastricht Center for Transatlantic Studies, Netherlands.

Thomas A. Yatooma Memorial Alumni Scholarship - Brandy Vinch of Macomb is a senior majoring in Electrical Engineering and is involved in Tau Beta Pi National Engineering Honor Society, Detroit Area Pre-College Engineering Program Assistant and Eta Kappa Nu Electrical and Computer Engineering Honor Society.

Thomas A. Yatooma Memorial Alumni Scholarship - Jacob Kraus of Lake Orion is a senior majoring in Electrical Engineering and is president of Tau Beta Pi National Engineering Honor Society, is a Boy Scouts of America Active Vigil Member and past Lodge Vice Chief of Administration, Chippewa Lodge 29 Order of the Arrow, and Golden Key National Honor Society.

Frances C. Amos School of Business Alumni Scholarship - Melissa Ann Scoggin of Sterling Heights is a junior majoring in Accounting. She is involved in the Student Program Board and OASIS.

Frances C. Amos School of Business Alumni Scholarship - Luke Spreitzer of Troy is a junior and is majoring in Finance. He is a tutor in the Academic Skills Center.

SUMMARY

Oakland University's Alumni Association has awarded 13 students with scholarships for fall and winter semesters.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Tuesday, May 15, 2001

Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Tuesday, May 15, 2001

Article Start Date: Wednesday, November 26, 2003