ARBITRATION PANEL GIVES AAUP FINDINGS

Oakland University and its chapter of the American Association of University Professors have resolved 1973-74 contract differences through binding arbitration.

The findings of the three-member panel were returned Tuesday, Aug. 28. They include a 4.7 percent pay increase and an incremental step increase for 283 continuing faculty estimated to cost an additional 3.1 percent. The raise and step increase bring total compensation to 7.8 percent. Additional cost to OU for 1973-74 will be $330,000. The effective date of the raises is Aug. 15, 1973.

The OU panel members were Frederick W. Obear, academic vice president and provost, representing the university, and James McKay, mathematics, representing the AAUP. The third member, selected by both parties, was Charles Rehms, co-director of the Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations at the University of Michigan. The binding arbitration method of settling unresolved issues was agreed upon by both parties last year.

In other findings, the panel kept the student-faculty ratio at the current 20.6 students for every faculty member, approved six paid professional development leaves for librarians during each contract year, and found that no specific library book fund expenditure should be included as part of a 1973-74 contract agreement.

The panel began meeting on the issues June 8, as provided in a three-year agreement signed between OU and the AAUP in 1972-73. The agreement provides for binding arbitration on unsettled economic issues through the 1974-75 contract year, and includes a three-year, no strike, no lockout clause.

PARKING DECALS REQUIRED BY OU

All students, faculty, and staff members are required by University Ordinance to register and obtain a decal for any motor driven vehicle over five horsepower. All decals other than ride pool can be obtained from the Department of Public Safety.

All registration of vehicles must be completed by the first full week of classes for any semester. Obtainment of said decal will entitle a vehicle to park in the proper designated lot, i.e., commuter, ride pool, resident, or faculty/staff.

The decal fee is $26 with no additional charge for up to three decals at one time, providing the person desirous of obtaining another decal produces registration for said vehicle. No decals will be given without presentation of a current registration for the vehicle to be registered. Any additional vehicles, other than for replacement of originals, will cost $8.00 per decal.

STUDENT ENTERPRISE THEATRE, FILM SERIES SET

The fall schedule of plays and films has been announced for the Student Enterprise Theatre and Student Enterprise Film Society. Both organizations operate under auspices of the Office of Student Organizations.
