ACCOLADES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

2019 Michigan Miss Basketball: Detroit Edison Public School Academy's Rickea Jackson

Detroit Edison Public School Academy's Rickea Jackson has won another title. At the 2018 Free Press Sport Awards, Rickea was named the Girls Basketball Player of the Year and Female Athlete of the Year. She is also a McDonald's All-American. She can now add 2019 Michigan Miss Basketball to her list of accomplishments.

Jackson received 2,939 votes by the Basketball Coached Association of Michigan to become the first player from the city of Detroit to win the award since 1990.

Rickeya will continue her basketball and academic endeavors at Mississippi State.

The Oakland University Office of Public School Academies wishes Rickea well at Mississippi State.

Congratulations, Rickea!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Family Reading Night — May 2

The ERL is partnering with Oakland Family Services to present Family Reading Night on Thursday, May 2 from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. to celebrate Children’s Book Week. Festivities will occur in the front area of the ERL. Join us as we share great books, snacks and activities. All children attending will receive a free book. Guest readers include administrators from Oakland Family Services, Auburn Hills Public Library Youth Services Librarian Erin Look, Dr. Linda Pavonetti, Dr. Jim Ciplewski and the Grizz.

Guilt By Innocence: Understanding Autism in the World of the Criminal Justice System – May 3

The Department of Human Development and Child Studies (HDCS) and the Oakland University Center for Autism will be presenting Guilt By Innocence: Understanding Autism in the World of the Criminal Justice System on Friday, May 3 from 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. in the Golf and Learning Center Building at 464 Golf View Lane in Rochester.

The goal of this conference is to educate professionals involved in the criminal justice system (defense attorneys, prosecutors, judges, law enforcement, legislators, psychologists, law school and criminal justice students) about the intersection of autism spectrum disorders (ASD) and the criminal justice system (CJS).

The standard registration fee for this event is $150, but limited student registration is available for $75. This includes a continental breakfast and lunch. To register for the event, go here.

For more information, visit the OU website, listen to the “Education Today” segment on the conference or view the event flyer. Contact Janet Graetz or Donna Simons for additional questions.

Building a Brighter Literacy Future: A Day of Information and Conversation for Concerned Educators (and Future Educators) – May 4

The Department of Reading and Language Arts (RLA) will be holding Building a Brighter Literacy Future: A Day of Information and Conversation for Concerned Educators (and Future Educators) on Saturday, May 4 from 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. in Gold Rooms A, B and C of the Oakland Center.

This symposium is designed to update current and future educators on the new ELA standards, which include the ELA teacher certification banding and the new Third-Grade Reading Law (MCL 380.1280f). Participants will hear from state and local experts, MDOE reading specialists and panel discussions led by Michigan educational experts.

This event is open to all education students who are student teaching or who will be student teaching during the fall 2019 semester. There is limited space available and registration is required. Registration costs $10, but a $5 discount is available for current OU students. A continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.

OU students and employees should contact Donna Rich at rich@oakland.edu or (248) 370-4170 to receive a discount code. Register for the event online or visit the event page for more information.

ABOUT THE SEHS BULLETIN

The SEHS Bulletin is a place where faculty and staff can share news and celebrate the wonderful things happening in SEHS. The bulletin is the perfect place to share information about your publications and awards, special projects and committee news, as well as announce events.

All are welcome to send items for inclusion. If you choose to do so, please ensure that your items are print ready, that you include all related links, and that you have permission to publish any photos being submitted. Please put “SEHS Bulletin” in the subject line and email your information to: ttyle@oakland.edu.

If you have questions about the bulletin, email Trevor Tyle at ttyle@oakland.edu.
