

Tuesday, September 15, 2015

ALERT: OU Police investigating alleged sexual assault

A sexual assault reported today to the Oakland University Police Department allegedly occurred on Tuesday, Sept. 8, at around 6 p.m. The sexual assault reportedly occurred in a vehicle near the Ann V. Nicholson Student Apartments. The suspect is a male of Middle Eastern descent, who drove a black car.

The suspect and victim met through social media and the victim willingly entered the suspect's vehicle. Police believe the suspect could be a potential threat to the campus community.

All community members are reminded to report suspicious activity to the Oakland University police Department. Anyone with information about this event is encouraged to notify the OUPD at (248) 370-3331.

OU Police would also like to remind the community to:

- Report all suspicious activity to the OU Police;
- Utilize the "Visual Escort" program for walking escorts;
- Always meet unfamiliar people in public areas, and;
- Check out www.oupolice.com for more safety tips.