OU to host informational meetings for master's degree program

Oakland University's School of Education and Human Services (SEHS) is holding informational meetings for its Master of Arts with Initial Secondary Teacher Certification (MAT) program on Monday, March 15, in Bloomfield Hills and Clinton Township. Individuals who are interested in earning a master's degree in teaching and Michigan teacher certification for grades 7 through 12 are invited to attend.

The Bloomfield Hills presentation will be held at the Doyle Center for Professional Development, located at 7273 Wing Lake Road, from 6 to 7 p.m.

Oakland University's Macomb County information session will be held at 5 p.m. at the Macomb Intermediate School District (MISD). The MISD is located at 44001 Garfield, just south of Hall Road, in Clinton Township.

The programs are a collaborative effort between Oakland University, the Bloomfield Hills School District and the MISD. With the exception of student teaching, classes are scheduled on evenings and weekends to accommodate adult learners.

Additional program information is available online at www.oakland.edu/profdev. Contact Professional Development at (248) 370-3033 or e-mail pro-development@oakland.edu.
