- ✓ Committee-approved Fiscal Year 2014 Intelligence Authorization Act highlights the critical need to increase our intelligence focus on Iran and its dangerous pursuit of nuclear weapons.

- ✓ Aggressive Committee oversight of the Administration’s Iran policy will continue in 2014. We will press the Administration to ensure Iran does not cheat on the wholly-inadequate P5+1 nuclear agreement over the next six months and to diligently monitor Iran’s progress on the other components needed to deliver a nuclear weapon on which the agreement is silent. We will also closely track Iran’s direct support of terrorist organizations such as Hezbollah, its cyber attacks on American financial institutions, and its facilitation of attacks against American troops in Afghanistan.
