Nominations accepted for Googasian Award

By Jeff Samoray, OU Web Writer

The Oakland University affiliate of the American Council on Education Network for Women Leaders is accepting nominations for the 2004 Phyllis Law Googasian Award. The award has been given annually since 1992 to an outstanding woman leader who has demonstrated commitment to the advancement of women on the OU campus.

Any member of the OU faculty, including special instructors and lecturers, and administrative professionals or other staff, is eligible for the award. Nominations are welcome from any university employee. The Googasian Award Committee ranks nominees according to established criteria and selects a winner.

Nomination forms and selection criteria recently were distributed through campus e-mail. Forms must be returned to Mary Papazian, associate dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and chair of the Googasian Award Committee, by Friday, Jan. 16.

Past award winners include:

- Fatma Mili – 2003
- Mary Beth Snyder – 2002
- Natalie Cole and Martha Zingo – 2001
- Mary Otto – 2000
- Joan Rosen – 1999
- Suzanne Frankie – 1998
- Jacqueline Scherer – 1996
- Jacqueline Loughheed – 1995
- Cathy Rush and Liz Barclay – 1994
- Margo King – 1993
- Phyllis Law Googasian – 1992

The Googasian Award was created to honor Phyllis Law Googasian, trustee emerita, for her exceptional commitment to the university and to the advancement of women. The 2004 award will be presented at the Googasian Award Luncheon in the Oakland Center in March.

For more information on the award, criteria for selection or to receive a nomination form, contact Papazian at (248) 370-2140 or papazian@oakland.edu.
