AIR OF SECRECY HANGS OVER MON HOUSE MEETING

An important house meeting has been called for Monday night at 11 o'clock. There will be a surprise announcement at that time. If you know what is being hidden in this cloak of secrecy, somebody please inform us of the Fitz Bitz Staff. So if at all possible BE THERE. Who knows maybe your room has been condemned by the health department.

THERE IS STILL TIME TO ENTER THE PINOCHELE TOURNAMENT. SIGN UP ON THE BULLETIN BOARD. THE SCHEDULE OF GAMES WILL BE POSTED MONDAY.

HOUSE SELLS COFFEE, COOKIES AT PLAY

The house is currently selling coffee and cookies at the production of "Dark of the Moon." The proceeds will go toward a fireplace for Fitz.

We wish to sincerely thank Mrs Haddix for providing chairs for the study room.

SUGGESTION OF THE WEEK

That people who put notes for the Fitz Bitz editor in the suggestion box should be more specific. What lake and what kind of kite?

After much suffering with the marshmellow type ice cream machine we now have a three selector. Also a canned Pepsi machine is on the way. How about that. A coin changer will also be put in the grill.

DORM COUNCIL NEWS

On February 28 there will be an open house for the faculty and the administration. We urge you to invite your Profs to come. The Harold Fitzgeralds have also been invited

On Monday February 22 (George's birthday) there will be a reception for Harold Taylor past president of Sara Lawrence College in the Hill lounge. Bring any questions you have on academic and social freedom on a college campus. Refreshments will be served.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY GEORGE 233 YR OLD MON.

With aptitude and various other devices for determining job suitability the science of numerology has all but been forgotten. While working with this science this week we made some startling discoveries about job suitability. We have determined jobs that three of our dorm residents are suited for.

Tony Cornellier ... Ambassador to Mali.

Kurt Bradley ... A congressman Why not he likes wine, women and song as well as any one.

Jim Amnesser ... wine taster

If you would like to know what job you are suited for drop your name in the suggestion box. Or drop someone else's name in the box. Every one whose name is used wins a pack of matches autographed by Lamar.

POETRY BY LAMAR WILL BE SEEN IN THE MONDAY SPECIAL EDITION OF FITZ BITZ
