Library Building Hours during Thanksgiving Holiday Kresge Library will close at 8:00pm on Wednesday, November 26 and reopen on Saturday, November 29 at 7:30am.

Medical Library Student InfoBites Join us in November for our third InfoBite, our monthly lunch seminar that complements instruction in the curriculum. All students (and any interested faculty or staff) are encouraged to attend!

November: Why PubMed, Google & Google Scholar Should All Be in your Super Searcher Utility Belt

- When: Wednesday, November 12 from 11:30 - 12:30pm
- Where: 110A O'Dowd Hall

The Medical Library remembers our esteemed colleague Frank Lepkowski, Associate Professor and Business Librarian at Oakland University Libraries, who passed on October 28, 2014. A scholar, poet, and beloved friend, he will always be in our thoughts and hearts.

Description: Who says we all can't be superheroes (with an awesome utility belt to boot!)? Join us for a free lunch to become a Super Searcher and learn why you need to master PubMed, Google, and Google Scholar to hone your superpowers!

If you plan to attend, please RSVP via our online registration form

November: Apps for Keeping Up With the Literature

- When: Wednesday, November 19 from 12:00 - 1:00pm
- Where: 478 O'Dowd
- Description: Learn about several new apps including Browzine, Docphin, and Read by QxMD that simplify your ability to keep up with the literature by making research accessible from your mobile phone or tablet!

For those faculty who could not attend October's Faculty Brown Bag session on October 22, be sure to check out the new subject guide on Grant Opportunities created by Dr. Misa Mi. The guide pulls together a comprehensive list of resources for locating funding opportunities for medical education research.

If you have any questions about the series, please contact Misa Mi at mi@oakland.edu
