Final exams rescheduled due to blackout

Due to the recent power outage, Oakland University has revised its final examination schedule for the 2003 summer semester.

Final exams scheduled to begin at 3:15 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 14, that were not completed before the power outage and all other final exams that were scheduled on that day after that time will be made up on Monday, Aug. 18, in the same room and at the same time as originally scheduled for the examination.

Final exams that were scheduled for Friday, Aug. 15, will be made up on Tuesday, Aug. 19, in the same room and at the same time as originally scheduled for the exam.

Final exams that were scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 16, and were not held will be made up on Wednesday, Aug. 20, in the same room and at the same time as originally scheduled for the examination.

The Office of the Registrar is revising the faculty grading deadlines and will communicate this information early this week. Please check The News @ OU for all the latest updates.
