OU's spring enrollment shows continued growth

Spring enrollment at Oakland University totaled 7,133, climbing by 8 percent compared to last spring's total of 6,596 students.

One way the university is dealing with the growth is by building a new Education and Human Services Building and new student apartments. Both are scheduled to open in fall 2002.

Oakland University is a comprehensive state-supported institution of higher education located in Oakland County, Michigan. The university has 110 bachelor's degree programs and 63 graduate degree and certificate programs. Dedicated to preparing learners for the 21st-century workplace and society, Oakland University is organized into the College of Arts and Sciences and the Schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Sciences, Nursing and the Honors College.
