

SEHS Bulletin – November 5, 2018

1 message

School of Education and Human Services - Oakland University <ttyle@oakland.edu> Mon, Nov 5, 2018 at 5:55 PM

School of Education and Human Services

ACCOLADES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Margaret Mudge Presents at 2018 Conference for Preschool Teachers

On Friday, November 2, Margaret Mudge presented on the topic “Propping Up Children’s Literacy Experiences” at the 2018 Fall Conference for Preschool Teachers, presented by the Greater Detroit Cooperative Preschool Teachers’ Association at Schoolcraft College. Over 50 teachers and directors participated in this interactive conference session.

Congratulations, Margaret!

Adam LeRoy to Present at National Academic Education Research Association

On Friday, November 2, Public School Academies' Adam LeRoy received confirmation that his paper was accepted to present at the National Academic Education Research Association Annual Meeting in Toronto in April.

Congratulations, Adam!

IN THE NEWS

SEHS Welcomes Two New Staff Members

On Monday, October 29, SEHS welcomed Anthony Gallina as the new Director of Philanthropy. Anthony comes to SEHS from a central advancement role within the university where he served in Annual Giving the past two years. Prior to that, Anthony spent five years in Undergraduate Admissions here at OU. A double alumnus of OU, Anthony has a marketing degree from SBA, and a Master's in Higher Education Leadership from right here in SEHS. Anthony's passion for OU and focus on collaboration has led to successful positions while serving here at OU.

SEHS also recently welcomed Ann Marie White as the new assistant to the dean. Ann Marie was the long-time assistant to the chair of Urology at Beaumont, spending 16+ years of her 20 years at Beaumont working with the current and former chairs of the department. Ann Marie is originally from Washington, D.C. Her daughter lives in New York City. She has an Australian shepherd and three cats.

When you have a chance, please stop by the dean's suite to greet these new team members.

Weekly ERL Update: Celebrating Native American Heritage Month

In 1990, President George H. W. Bush officially declared November to be Native American Heritage Month. It is a time to honor and commemorate Native American history, culture, tradition and way of life. As educators, we might be particularly diligent by providing our students with authentic and appropriate literature and resources.

For more information and reviews of books which portray the Native American experience in books for youth, you can consult the ERL reference book, A Broken Flute: The Native Experience in Books for Children by Doris Seale and Beverly Slapin.

OYATE is a Native American organization working to make sure that Native American history and culture is portrayed honestly and with integrity. Their webpage provides many resources and great information to help you make strong choices.

Check out our display in the ERL where you will find many great books to help you celebrate.

Temple Grandin Comes to OU

On Tuesday, October 30, Disability Support Services and OUCARES welcomed professor, author and advocate Dr. Temple Grandin to OU's campus. She presented during a workshop focused on supporting individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder in higher education. Autism Education and Intervention Specialist Maureen Ziegler also spoke at the event.

For more information on Dr. Grandin's visit, as well as photos from the event, view the OU Magazine.

Celebrating Dr. Ron Cramer

During AUFD 2018, we're #celebratingCRAMER once again in recognition of Ron Cramer's 50 years of service to Oakland University in the Department of Reading and Language Arts. For those of you who did not know Dr. Cramer, he was a writer with a genuine love for language and poetry.

Last week, the SEHS Bulletin included the first and second of eight "found poems" that students, staff and faculty made from each selecting a sentence or one-word strip that spoke to them. These sentences and strips were taken from emails and literature written by Dr. Cramer.

Below is the third of the eight "found poems":

Found Poem #3 of 8
Look back and say
You never know.
You never know the likelihood of magnificence
Explore your own interests
For goodness is your raw material

Carry on

BIRTHDAYS

If you do not wish to have your birthday included, contact Trevor Tyle.

ABOUT THE SEHS BULLETIN

The SEHS Bulletin is a place where faculty and staff can share news and celebrate the wonderful things happening in SEHS. The bulletin is the perfect place to share information about your publications and awards, special projects and committee news, as well as announce events.

All are welcome to send items for inclusion. If you choose to do so, please ensure that your items are print ready, that you include all related links, and that you have permission to publish any photos being submitted. Please put "SEHS Bulletin" in the subject line and email your information to: ttyle@oakland.edu.

If you have questions about the bulletin, email Trevor Tyle at ttyle@oakland.edu.

Oakland University
School of Education and Human Services

Pawley Hall
456 Pioneer Drive, Rochester, MI 48309-4482

(248) 370-3050
sehs@oakland.edu
oakland.edu/sehs

Manage your preferences or unsubscribe.
Not subscribed? Sign up to receive our future emails.
View this email in a browser.