There will be a special virtual town hall geared towards college students, and hosted by U.S. Representative Elissa Slotkin, titled: "What the COVID-19 crisis means for college students" held on Tuesday, May 5 at 1 p.m.

Campus representatives participating in the virtual town hall event include Oakland University President Ora Hirsch Pescovitz and Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management Dawn Aubry.

Students will be encouraged to participate and ask questions about how the COVID-19 virus pandemic will impact their student loans, unemployment insurance and other topics that relate to their educational goals.

Participating students should register for the virtual Town Hall in advance.
